Roucek Gets Bids For Spring Talks

Dr. Joseph S. Roucek, Chairman of the Department of Sociology, has been invited to deliver the annual lectures at two foreign universities this spring.

The University of Montreal and the University of Mexico have delivered the invitations. He informed the SCRIBE this week that he will probably accept the bid from Montreal.

His subject will be based on Slavic sociological affairs. Author of many books on geopolitics, economics, political science, and sociology, Dr. Roucek is considered by many as an expert on Mediterranean sociology and geopolitics.

Prof. Allen Speaks In January Convo.

A varied program of convocations is scheduled for this month. Each Tuesday, lectures will be given by various members of the faculty, including Dean Martha P. Jayne, of the College of Nursing, Dr. Abraham Knepler of the Sociology Department and Prof. William Allen of the History Department.

Only Prof. Allen's topic has been announced by the convocation committee, with the others to be released at a later date. Allen will speak on "A Historian Looks at the World Tomorrow."

Three programs are planned in the "Ways of Mankind" series.

Two From UB On Committee At State CSIL

by Ivan Schaffel

Al Munrow and Diane McDougall have been appointed by the Selections Committee of the Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature as Chairman of Agriculture and Elections committees and Chairman of the Constitutional Committee respectively.

These two students traveled to Hartford on Dec. 13, and passed a vigorous examination before the committee, located at Trinity College.

Peter Baldino, a Junior at UB, succeeds Phil Clark as Senior delegate to the Mock Legislature. He will be in charge of the delegation that will go to the Connecticut Intercollegiate Legislature at Hartford, the second Thursday in March.

This year there will be 16 members representing each school, instead of the usual 15, because of Arnold College's merger with UB.

Glorieta Manor Chosen For Sophomore Dance

by Noel-Anne McGraw

The Sophomore Class, in keeping with its motto of "Keep Our Class a Spirited Class," will play host tomorrow night to the first Sophomore Class Dance in 27 years, to be held at Glorieta Manor from 9 P. M. to 1 A. M.

Marcus Named To State Education Advisory Board

Dr. Eric Marcus, associate professor of the department of foreign languages, has been named to serve on a newly formed advisory committee for the State Department of Education.

The committee, which will be responsible to the Bureau of Youth Service, will be strictly an advisory committee "to review and evaluate the present program of foreign languages in the junior and senior high schools of this state and in helping to develop ways and means of improving the program and instruction."

Dr. Marcus, who joined the UB staff in 1947, is the first faculty member since Arthur Thexton, to be called upon to serve on a state committee. He is in charge of the Fullbright Scholarship program on campus and serves as adviser to the German Club. He is also a former chairman of the All-University dinner.

DR. ERIC MARCUS

The music will be provided by Jack Still and his Orchestra, with entertainment and other attractions promised.

Tickets, still on sale at Alumni Hall from Sophomore Class members, are $2 per couple.

Sam Goldberg, president of the class, is general chairman of the affair, which is the "baby" of Carl Dickman, last year's class president.

It was Dickman who personally campaigned for the idea of student purchases of furnishings for the recreation room in the basement of Alumni Hall.

The Dance Committee includes: Joe Campalongo, publicity chairman; June Fried, ticket chairman; Dave Ganim, entertainment chairman; Phyllis Aldo and Nancy Kraut, co-chairmen of advertising.

Other committee members are Mike Fastoso, Dan Katz, Hymie Katz, Myra Seide, Myra Friedlander, Hal Nevins, Fran Zirkel, Barbara Swyer and Mary Ann Lacy.

Freshmen Elect Three Council Representatives Next Week

by Bobbi Crane

The Freshman class will vote next week for three representatives to Student Council. The person receiving the highest number of votes will automatically become president; second highest, vice-president; third highest, secretary-treasurer. The remaining two will serve as alternates.

The Political Relations Forum will conduct the election.

Nominations have been submitted by David-Bar Cohen, James Faulkner, Ralph V. Johnson, Nicholas Panuzio, and Bette Weber.

Bar-Cohen, a native of Bridgeport, is a Marketing major. He is running for office because of "the faith I place upon my ability to hold an office, my experience having been attained in high school."

"I believe I can represent my fellow students in a just manner," stated James Faulkner, also a Marketing major. Faulkner is a town student, also.

Industrial Relations major Nicholas Panuzio is from Trumbull. "I want to take some small part in running the government of the University," is his reason for running for Freshman representative to Student Council.

Ralph V. Johanson professes "an interest in the welfare of UB." He hails from Livingston, N. J., and is living in Milford Hall. His major is Industrial Engineering.

Bette Weber, the only girl running for office, said "The position for which I am bidding is one of honor, responsibility, and integrity, but with the confidence already bestowed on me by the signers of my petition, I feel capable of holding such an office." Bette, a Fashion Merchandising major, is from Yonkers, N. Y., and lives in Schiott Hall.

Newman Club Plans Program

A retreat, two communion breakfasts, and Lenten devotions were tentatively planned for next semester at a recent bi-monthly meeting of the Newman Club held in Central Annex.

The Inter-Faith Dance, to be held in February, was also discussed. Mike Belmont was chosen as Newman Club representative to the dance committee.

Following the business meeting, the Rev. John McGough of Sacred Heart Church gave a talk on "Mixed Marriages."

Coffee and donuts were served after the meeting.

New Haven Alumni Make Future Plans; Draw Up Charter

At a recent meeting of the New Haven County Alumni Assoc., held at the Variety Club in New Haven, a constitution was drawn up and voted as acceptable.

Also discussed at the meeting was the planning of future meetings and a buffet dinner and dance to be held early this coming year for New Haven County students as well as alumni.

The next meeting of the organization will be held Sunday at 2 P. M. Easton Smith, Chairman, requests all New Haven County Alumni interested in the Association to attend the next meeting. Election of officers will be held.

DRINK vs. DRIVE

This is the story about a "good, fast driver" named "Charlie." Charlie was a junior, a veteran, well-liked and generally known far and wide as the life of the party.

Charlie bought a car just one month after his discharge. It was a light-blue super convertible with twin spots, fog lights, directional lights, overdrive, and white-wall tires.

To make a long story short, it was quite some automobile! Charlie was proud of it, and of the manner in which he mastered it via the steering wheel.

Like most gregarious college students, he liked to go out with the boys for a beer. He always drove home himself. He was a "good, fast driver."

One fine night Charlie drank a little too much beer. He wanted to drive home himself (as usual) and won his argument (as usual). The convertible pointed its blunt blue nose toward and away from the night.

He mentioned, some car. It had everything, and was a "good driver." Well, he decided the convertible would do on the road, no more.

WAS a junior. Charlie isn't a terrible light blue, with the overdrive and white wall tires. He is a "good, fast driver."

Bogan, James New Proctors At Dormitories

by Lee Meckler

Miss Katharine Bogan and Miss Kathleen James have been named resident counselors at Linden and Southport Halls.

Miss Bogan, the Linden Hall resident, is from Norwood, Pa. She received her B. S. from West Chester (Pennsylvania) State Teachers College and her M. Ed. from State University of New York in 1950.

Previous teaching positions held by her were at Sacred Heart College in North Carolina, East Greenville High School in Pennsylvania, a private school in Rochester, New York and Arnold College.

Miss Bogan said that she likes her new job very much and feels she can be a more active part of the school now, that she is living on campus. When asked how she would bring a mother to so many girls, she said, "The girls' mother."

Fencing

The new fencing team adds another gem to the UB sports crown. Congratulations to Lawrence Matto on his election to captain the squad and to the new team's members, Dick Willkes, James Martin, John Farrell, Elmer Bedford, Bill Jarboe, Saul Goldwasser and Phil DuBreuil. To our swordsmen "En Garde," good luck and may every "touche" be a soft one.

Basketball

"We've got only one tall man, and that's Clinkscales. He's six feet-four and a half, and after him we drop to six-two. Therefore, we've got to operate as a unit if we're to compete against teams with a two and three inch advantage. That, according to Coach Herb Glines, "is the key to our club."

Cold statistics back up the Coach and his words on the performance of the squad. Teamwork seems to be the by-word in the successful 4-2 record of the club thus far. Outside of Alvin Clinkscales' high scoring, (25.3 per game), the second high point total in New England, no one on the club seems able to arrest the limelight for more than a game. Art (Red) Kleinberg and Ernie Amaral have posted 11.4 and 11.0 averages respectively, while the rebounding has been done largely by Jimmy Davins, Stan Silverberg and Bob Lee.

Soccer

The 1953 edition, first soccer team to carry the standards of the Purple and White in three years, had the distinction of placing two members on the New England All-Star Team. Mike (Old Reliable) Belmont carried off high honors by being placed on the second team roster while Gordie Cochrane received honorable mention.

Swimming

Dick Ellis was recently elected captain of the University's swimming team. Ellis, one of the two holdovers from the school's last team, fielded in 1950, easily can be cited as the one who has done most to bring swimming back to UB. For two years the club, although not officially carried by the University, met many outside teams while their fate was being watched by the Athletic Department. Ellis led the group through the low spell until official recognition was given at the beginning of the season.

A Resolution

With this new year let us all resolve to give earnest support to our athletics teams, who strive so gallantly to bring glory to our school. Corny? perhaps; why not put it in your own words and try it anyway.

Purple Knights Face Fairfield Saturday; 'Clinks' Gets 24 In Rout Of New Haven

by Don Burke

Returning to the grind after a two week lay-off, the University of Bridgeport basketball team met Brooklyn Poly last night on the Boys' Club floor and will battle against their traditional rival Fairfield University, Saturday in the first two games of 1954.

Foilsmen Meet Yale In Opener Saturday; Matto New Captain

The University of Bridgeport will unveil its newest sport Saturday night when William DeSiero's foilsmen travel to New Haven to meet the Yale Junior Varsity. DeSiero, better known for his teaching chores than as a coach has no high hopes for the squad but he has been putting the team through their paces throughout the Christmas holiday and expects them to be ready for the Eli's.

Lawrence Matto, a former member of the Bridgeport YMCA fencing squad and one of the few members of the Knights who had any experience in the sport, was recently elected captain of the team.

DeSiero has announced that he will carry a 10 man squad, with Dick Wilkes, James Martin, John Farrell, Elmer Bedford, Bill Jarboe, Saul Goldwasser and Phil DuBreuil on the roster in addition to Matto. The other two positions are still open and will be filled before the coming match.

A four match schedule has been arranged for the new Knights and DeSiero and Robert (Papa) Grason, who is assisting the "continental" have expressed some hopes for the season. The duellists will meet Fordham, Drew and Columbia as well as Yale.

The Knights, who have been idle since defeating New Haven on Dec. 19 had just one contest against the engineers from Brooklyn in order to sharpen-up for the first of two against the high powered Jesuits of Fairfield. This contest and the Purple's last game of the year against the Red and White will decide the Greater Bridgeport "championship."

Defeat New Haven

In the last game before the Knights retired for the Christmas vacation New Haven State Teachers fell victim before the Purple's onslaught 69-51. After a close half time score the Knights gained command. Alvin Clinkscales did most of the scoring, posting 24 for the night, while Bob Lee, Jimmy Davins and Stan Silverberg did the greater part of the rebounding. This victory christened the Teachers' new gymnasium and enabled UB to continue their unblemished record against New Haven, the teachers not having been able to master a Bridgeport quintet since 1950.

Record 4-2

The UB record upon entering the New Year finds them with a .667 average, having posted a 4-2 record thus far. Rider College, Pratt, New Haven and the UB Alumni have all been entered on the credit side of the ledger, while the names of high ranking Iona College and Manhattan College have been written in red ink.

Although addressed to "POC Sorority House," Rosemarie Mehm of Schiott Hall managed to receive a letter to her from a group of servicemen in California. The GI's, just back from Korea after two years of combat, happened to run across the edition of the Bridgeport Herald that featured the candidates for POC Sweetheart.

Everyone in the barracks agreed that Rosemarie was THEIR Queen even if she did not win the title here at school. The boys felt so strongly about this that they wrote a letter to tell her of their choice, and asked for a picture of the pretty blonde freshman.

The letter also told of the GI's being broke in body and spirit, and how much they would appreciate a few lines from the other candidates. If any of the other girls, or anyone else, would like to write, the address is: Donald Twilowski, CMR, First Lieut. Div., WSN CBC, Port Hueneme, Calif.

The fencing lessons given by Prof. DiSiero in the Snack Bar just before vacation were something to see. Demonstrating for a group of interested students, he could be seen jumping, spinning on his toes, leaping forward, and then leaping back again with grace and skill rarely seen on this campus of ours.

Seriously, Mr. DiSiero, I want to wish you a lot of luck with the Fencing Club this year. I hope everyone knows the advantages this sport offers, and that anyone interested will contact you.

Vicki Mesiano of Wistaria Hall is still talking about the wonderful trip she took to the windy city of Chicago during the vacation. Vicki says that Chicago is not quite as cold as everyone claims it is, but it still gets pretty chilly out there at night.

As seen in the HOFSTRA CHRONICLE, "For Rent — One room and bath. Five minutes from school. GIRLS PREFERRED. Call HE 7-0558." Well, if I had a room to rent that's just the way I'd feel. How about you?

Just a reminder not to forget the Sophomore Dance that is coming up tomorrow night at Gloreta Manor. This will be the first attempt by a class to sponsor a dance, so let's all get out there and support the Soph Class in their drive to fix up the basement of Alumni Hall.

Phil DuBreuil, editor of this year's yearbook will not tell anyone what he has planned, but I hear that the book will be done in a manner that is completely different from other years, and it should prove to be very enjoyable when we all see what Phil has in mind.

It's about time someone has done something about the card game that goes on in the Lounge on the second floor of Alumni Hall. Mr. Brewer has asked that all card games be confined to the third floor in the future.

No one should have to sit and listen to a bunch of guys shout and swear in a lounge meant for all, not just those who could stand that type of language.

That's about all for this week. Bye til next Thursday.

Strange Things Are Happening At Soc. Colloquium Yule Party

by Lee Mekler

Perhaps I should be writing to "True Confessions." Let me explain.

There was a subdued hush in the big barn, the night was cold, and a spark of excitement traveled from one to the other.

Ten people were asleep, one on one side of me; on the other side, a happy group laughed and talked. And in the midst of this quiet confusion I slept in an hypnotic trance leaning against a UB prof.

At the Christmas party given by the Sociology Colloquium at Healy Barn, Dr. Knepler demonstrated hypnosis, and explained that hypnosis is often used to cure people who imagine they are ill. He gave a brief talk on subjects and their willingness, intelligence, and reactions to hypnosis. Ten students then volunteered for actual participation.

Though I originally went to sleep on a couch, it was suggested that I sleep standing up, and, being unable to resist this strange, new feeling, I followed these instructions.

As I peacefully slept, my head resting on the shoulder of a man

Hillel Chapter Approved; Gets Administration OK

Hillel has announced that it has received its formal approval from the faculty and administration of the University.

In accordance with this approval, Hillel has received permission to have a table set up at registration time for formal membership.

At a meeting held recently, plans were discussed for the Inter-Religious Council dance to be held on Feb. 27, at a place yet to be determined.
